Appleby Races Track Rules

1. Officials: BHRC stewards, Integrity Officer, Eden Valley Stewards and gate stewards for Appleby will wear body cameras to record the process of racing and integrity testing at our events.
2. Any horse entered at Appleby New Fair Races could be subjected to sampling for Integrity Testing.
3. In accordance with Appendix V of the BHRC Rules and Regulations, there will be an appointed area for testing. All horses chosen for sampling will be escorted to this area and may be stripped of harness and washed down once present at the appointed area (water and equipment to be provided by the trainer). The horse passport will be required.
In accordance with section Y of the BHRC Rules, the trainer or their representative may be present to witness the collection of the sample. Should a trainer choose not to witness this process (or nominate a representative), they must sign a declaration before the sample is taken in which they agree that the integrity of the sampling procedure will not be questioned later. No additional personnel may accompany the horse due to Health & Safety.
